 - Up to 40 hours per week permitted during:
 - Spring Break (5 weekdays, plus the Saturday and Sunday before and after)
 - Summer (day after May graduation through day before August classes start)
 - Winter break (day after December graduation through day before January classes start)
- Graduate Students
 - No more than 20 hours per week in a student job title during the student's first two long semesters (fall/spring) as a full-time graduate student
 - No more than 30 hours per week in a student job title during subsequent semesters, including summer
 - Exception: Up to 40 hours per week during:
 - Spring Break (5 weekdays, plus the Saturday and Sunday before and after)
 - Summer (day after May graduation through day before August classes start, but no more than an average of 30 hours per week between 6/1 and 8/31)
 - Winter break (day after December graduation through day before January classes start)
- Students in Undergraduate Academic Titles (0066, 0070, 0095)
 - No more than 20 hours per week during long semesters (fall/spring)
 - Up to 40 hours per week during:
 - Spring Break (5 weekdays, plus the Saturday and Sunday before and after)
 - Summer (day after May graduation through day before August classes start); for students enrolled in summer classes, Quantity of Work Guidelines recommended: Work hours + course credit hours = no more than 40 hours per week
 - Winter break (day after December graduation through day before January classes start)
- Students in Non-Academic Titles
 - Up to 40 hours per week, subject to limits for Work-Study, international, and graduate students
 - Quantity of Work Guidelines recommended: Work hours + course credit hours = no more than 40 hours per week

* Departments may impose stricter limits for the students they employ in student titles.

NOTE: Under the Affordable Care Act, health insurance benefits must be offered to:

- any employee who is reasonably expected to work at least 30 hours per week or 130 hours per month for a period of 90 days or more, and
- any employee who works an average of at least 30 hours per week or 130 hours per month during a 12-month measurement period

ACA eligibility is based on actual hours worked, and assignments must accurately reflect work hours to enable ACA compliance.
